Notes from the Editor

Greetings to my fellow Hinxtonians.

Well what a fantastic week Hinxfest was! I would like to say thanks so much to Mike Boagey and his team for giving the village such a fabulous experience. I went to a few events including the beautiful “Son et Lumière” where I took the photo that graces the front cover.

There will be a full report next month I believe but in this issue we have a lovely collage of photos from Hugh Taylor and I took the photo below of Mike and Rosemary when I went for a splendid lunch at the Art Café.

Once again, in the run up to Christmas, there’s lots going on in the village this month including The Hinxton Light Up. I hope everyone will join in as it’s always a lovely event.

I’d like to take this opportunity to wish you all a very merry Christmas and a peaceful and happy New Year.

See you around and about!

All the best

CHURCH NEWS

Joy!

Number 394 in the Roud Folk Song Index is one of the oldest Christmas carols we still sing. Thought to date from the 1500s, the earliest printed text we have is from around 1760. It features in Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol": near the beginning, Ebenezer Scrooge, that hater of all things Christmas, hears the song outside his office and terrorises the hapless carol singer. Have you guessed it yet? The name of the carol is of course "God rest you merry, Gentlemen"... also often known as "Comfort and Joy"... for the repeated line in the chorus: "O tidings of comfort and joy".

The word "comfort" has rather changed its meaning since the carol was first sung. When you say comfort now, you may well be thinking of a sofa or a cosy jumper or a brand of fabric softener. But joy: well that still resonates as it always did and is at the heart of the story of Christmas.

Like many other carols, "God rest you merry, Gentlemen" tells the whole Christmas story. A story fraught with uncertainty and fear, whether that's Joseph's concern about what seemed to him an unplanned baby, or the lack of a place for Mary and Joseph to stay in a crowded city or – later on - King Herod's murderous rage.

But it's also a story that really is full of great joy: the exuberant praise of the angels, the excitement of the shepherds and Mary's quiet appreciation of it all. Mary, who, after the noisy shepherds have left, treasures up the memories of that night in her heart.

There are lots of opportunities to celebrate the joyful story of Christmas in the Hinkledux churches this year – details are in our Christmas card and on our website and Facebook page. And if you're interested in exploring what the Christmas story could mean for you, a great place to start is with "The twelve joys of Christmas: meditations for Christmas and the New Year" from the Church of England. You can sign up for emails or read these via the Everyday Faith phone app (see <https://www.churchofengland.org/faith-life/what-we-believe/advent-and-christmas/sign-joy-christmas> for details).

Wishing you a joyful Christmas

Parish Council News

Notes from the November Parish Council Meeting

Village Hall extension. A pre-application will be submitted for checking with Planning officers, prior to the Planning Application being submitted.

Highways. Local Highways Initiative application- Clerk will apply again for 20mph zone in the village.

River/weir report. Melanie Pankhurst and Lee Outhwaite from Wellcome Trust met with Chris Elliott to talk about a new sluice and weir to help prevent future flooding, especially with the new development. They will now go away and have discussions about these and the funding required- approx. £250,000

Hinxfest. The Remembrance concert was held at the Church on the 9th Nov, this will be going on the Hinxton Facebook website and hopefully on the Hinxton PC website, depending on permission.

Locations of speed sign. The Clerk is working with Highways to see if new posts can be erected for the speed sign. To use streetlight signs, a license has to be obtained and then the sign inspected each time it moves to a different site.

Public participation time.

It was asked if the PC would again make a donation to buy sweets for the children at the Christmas Light-up event. It would be in the region of £150; the PC said they were happy to donate, Clerk to arrange the payment.

A resident complained about the vegetation overgrowth at the New Road junction; this makes it difficult to pull out as the view is blocked, Clerk to contact Wellcome Trust as this is growing over their fence.

New Road junction. Residents and Councillors are worried that an accident is going to occur here due to the sweep being too narrow, having to pull out into oncoming traffic when turning right onto the A1301 or having to stop on the carriageway to let cars exit from New Road. When entering New Road from the roundabout coming from Saffron Walden direction, cars are too close and not expecting cars to be turning left. Residents said that often they carry on round the roundabout until there are no cars following them. Others said they won't use New Rd junction as they feel unsafe and go to the North End junction instead. A Speed survey is to be done: the sweep of the road can be determined by the speed; however the PC said this wasn't good enough. Even if speeds are lower the road is still not safe. Cllr McDonald said he would relay our fears to the County Council and Highways and ask them to drive this junction so they can see the problems.

Clapper gates on the permissive path: 2 new gates and fences have been installed which are very much an improvement. Are the other gates going to be installed as the ones there now are broken and difficult to use. Clerk will contact Bidwells.

A car has been abandoned on the Baulk road; it was in the field but now moved to the verge. Clerk asked for a photo and will then report it.

New items for discussion and correspondence.

The Budget was discussed and it was proposed that the Precept for 2026-27 would be kept the same as previous years at £16,585

A-board and sign posts to Church and Mill. The Clerk will meet with Highways to see if these are allowed and whether we can have signs made to put on the posts to direct people to the Mill and the Church

District and County Councillors report.

This can be found in full on the Hinxtton Parish Council website. Topics covered include:

- Postal Voters
- 4-Day Week in the news
- Anglian Water (AW) Fen Reservoir Consultation
- OxCam Growth Corridor and Cambridge Growth Company
- Draft Local Plan – “The most important document you’ve never heard of”
- Bringing empty homes back into use
- Consultation on County Budget
- Statement by Myself as Chair of the Council after Huntingdon Attack
- Care Leavers Event

Reverting to bi-monthly meetings. The Parish Council have historically met every other month, with the months in-between being available if anything urgent arises such as Planning applications. Meetings have been held monthly recently due to the amount of items on the Agendas relating mainly to Wellcome Trust development and the Village Hall extension. It was suggested that the PC return to holding meetings every other month. This will be put on to January’s Agenda for discussion and voting on.

Planning applications :

Appeal following refusal:

Local Planning Authority: South Cambridgeshire District Council

Proposal: Creation of office/R&D units (Use Class E).

Site address: Land West Of Hinxtton Grange Pumping Station Cambridge Road

LPA Reference: 25/00839/FUL

The Parish Council still oppose this planning application. Previous objections that were raised to be submitted.

Ickle-Gigs

LIVE at the ICKLETON SOCIAL CLUB

Saturday 13th December 7.30pm.

John 'Magic Boy' Wright.

Johnny is the driving force behind one of the leading blues bands in the country - Split Whiskers. John also hosts the famous Wednesday Sessions at the Grapes pub in Cambridge, where he assembles the best musicians around to jam away to a packed crowd.

It is a coup to get John to play at an Ickle-Gig with his house band. It's not the Whiskers, but it will be something similar!

As described in one of many reviews: Johnny embraces excellence. The show is a complete experience. You will leave refreshed and invigorated by the blues he plays.

Come on Sat 13th Dec and see for yourself!

Keep Music Live. Support Grassroots Venues. Support Ickle-Gigs!

For more Ickle-Gig information look up Ickle-gigs on Facebook,
